

The Closed Captions Task

Overview from SfN

Access the Task

After you have completed your recording or video upload in the “[Presentation type] Recording” task, Cadmium will autogenerate closed captions for it. These can be accessed through the “[Presentation type] Closed Captioning” task just below. The captions will take a few minutes to process (generally 1 minute per minute of presentation. Time may increase if many people uploading at the same time.)

- Symposia Recording (task is due Friday, September 24, 2021)

The main area displays a transcript of a video. A blue highlight highlights the first line: "Hello and welcome to my wokewire task demonstration." The transcript continues with:

Whereby our task will be under the name of whatever presenter group the person is a part of.
So symposia recording, many symposia recording.
So I believe upload a poster will have this.
We will have the screen inside of it.
So we're going to be

At the bottom, there is a control bar with icons for play, volume, search, closed captions, speed, and settings, and a timestamp of 0:06 / 4:21.

This is the main screen of the closed caption task. Here, you can review your video and the associated captions. The transcript is on the right side of the screen, and you can scroll through it to find a particular caption. As the video plays, the transcript scrolls along with the playback. The blue highlighted caption is what is being said at the current timestamp.

Video Playback Options

In the video playback controls, find the play/pause button, the volume control, playback speed, and video quality (the settings wheel)

Search the Transcript
