NOA01. Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) Short Course: Tackling Challenges in Data Management, Collection, and Sharing

Location: SDCC 30

Time: Friday, November 11, 2022, 1:00 PM - 5:30 PM

Support Contributed By: National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke

As science grows increasingly open and collaborative, it is critical for investigators to have a robust plan for data collection, management, and sharing to adhere to changing data sharing mandates. In this short course, experts will discuss the ways they organize, manage, and share scientific data both inside and outside the lab. Attendees will learn to incorporate best practices for receiving, storing, and sharing open data as researchers, libraries, organizations, and faculty. NOA02. NeuroJobs Career Center

Location: SDCC Sails Pavilion

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

The on-site SfN NeuroJobs Career Center connects employers with a pool of well-qualified candidates seeking opportunities ranging from postdoctoral and faculty positions to neuroscience-related jobs in industry and other areas. Job seekers and employers can take advantage of private interview booths and computers for posting and applying for jobs. For prices and more information on how to set up a NeuroJobs account, visit www.SfN.org/neurojobs. On-site payment can be made by credit card only.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA03. Graduate School Fair

Location: SDCC Sails Pavilion

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 12:00 PM - 2:00 PM

Prospective graduate students can meet face-to-face with student advisors, program faculty, and graduate school representatives from dozens of national and international institutions at the Graduate School Fair.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA04. Brain Awareness Campaign Event — Connecting With the Next Generation of Diverse Neuroscientists

Location: SDCC 16

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 2:30 PM - 4:00 PM

Celebrate brain awareness and share your outreach activities with Brain Awareness Week organizers from around the world. Recognize the Brain Awareness Video Contest winners. Join science communicator Asma Bashir and public engagement specialist Leigh Wilson for a keynote address as they share their story of connection and unique perspectives on supporting and celebrating the next generation of diverse neuroscientists through outreach.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA05. Early Career Policy Ambassador (ECPA) Posters

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Support Contributed By: eNeuro and JNeurosci

The Early Career Policy Ambassador (ECPA) Program poster session will feature poster presentations from past and current ECPAs highlighting their neuroscience advocacy and policy work. The ECPA program is a 10-month program that allows early career scientists to meet with their policymakers and gain the necessary skills to advocate for science and to encourage those in their personal networks to join the conversation.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA06. Diversity Poster Session

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Support Contributed By: eNeuro and JNeurosci

Join a special poster session and networking event featuring participants of the Neuroscience Scholars Program - NSP, ENDURE, D-SPAN, and SPINES. The Neuroscience Scholars Program (NSP) is a two-year training program open to underrepresented graduate students and postdoctoral researchers.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA07. FUN Poster Session

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Support Contributed By: eNeuro and JNeurosci

The FUN poster session will feature presenters from the Faculty for Undergraduate Neuroscience. FUN is an international organization supporting neuroscience research and education at the undergraduate level.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA08. International Fellows Poster Session

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Support Contributed By: eNeuro and JNeurosci

The International Fellows poster session and networking event will feature participants of the Latin American Training Program - LATP, International Brain Research Organization - IBRO, Japanese Neuroscience Society - JNS and Federation of European Neuroscience Societies – FENS. The Latin American Training Program (LATP) is a year-long online training program with a 3-week live course for select participants.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA09. Trainee Professional Development Awards Poster Session

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Support Contributed By: eNeuro and JNeurosci

The Trainee Professional Development Awards (TPDA) poster session and networking event will honor award-winning posters from undergraduate and graduate students and postdoctoral fellows.

Organizer/Moderator: *S. NEUROSCIENCE;
Society for Neurosci., Washington, DC

NOA10. Career Development Topics: A Networking Event

Location: SDCC Halls B-H

Time: Saturday, November 12, 2022, 7:30 PM - 9:30 PM

Experienced neuroscientists will answer attendee questions on a wide range of topics at this informal, roundtable event. Topics include work-life balance, securing grants, setting up a lab, choosing a postdoctoral position, and careers outside of academia, among others. Nearly 30 tables will be offered at the event. During the event, attendees will have the opportunity to rotate among the tables that are of interest to them. Neuroscientists at all career stages are encouraged to attend.

NOA15. Chapters Workshop: Creative Ways to Engage Your Community

Location: SDCC 10

Time: Monday, November 14, 2022, 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM

In this year's workshop, chapter leaders will discuss several aspects of creative ways to engage your community: collaborating with diverse departments within your institution, connecting multiple institutions locally/regionally, reaching diverse populations, and chapter continuity/leadership continuity. Attendees will enjoy interactive and engaging discussions focused on increasing interest, engagement, and knowledge in neuroscience.

NOA16. Animals in Research Panel — The Benefits and Limitations of Alternatives to Animals in Research

Location: SDCC 11

Time: Monday, November 14, 2022, 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Support Contributed By: The National Primate Research Centers

The remarkable advances in the development of alternatives to animal models in biomedical research benefit restricted areas of neuroscience. Learn where and how microphysiological systems can be used appropriately and effectively, and why neuroscience still needs animal models.

NOA18. Celebration of Women in Neuroscience Event

Location: SDCC 11

Time: Tuesday, November 15, 2022, 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

The annual Celebration of Women in Neuroscience Event honors female leaders in neuroscience. During this year's event, Jill Becker, PhD, will moderate a panel discussion focused on the impacts of COVID-19 and how neuroscientists navigated this challenge and found success. The panel will feature Anita Disney, PhD; Yukiko Goda, PhD; and Michelle Jones-London, PhD.

Organizer/Moderator: *J. BECKER;

Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI

Speaker: M. Jones-London;

NOA20. The Advocacy Forum — The Role of Scientific Data in Navigating Difficult Advocacy Discussions

Location: SDCC 11

Time: Tuesday, November 15, 2022, 2:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Researchers can be faced with tough conversations with the public and policymakers when advocating for neuroscience priorities. As a result, meaningful progress can be stalled. Learn to successfully leverage the use of data and emotion to influence the decision-making process and have productive and impactful advocacy discussions.
